THE SHIELD

SAINT JOSEPH'S ACADEMY

Baton Rouge, Louisiana

VOLUME I

1962

Foreword–

Throughout the years there has been a desire on the part of the student body for a yearbook. This year the hope was finally realized, and The Shield became a reality. The accomplishment of this project was due to the efforts of the senior class and, in particular, to the work of Jane Farrier, senior class president, and Diane Knobloch, Student Council president.

Carefully recorded on these pages are the joys, the sorrows, the fun and the hard work that made this year special. The pictures throughout this annual tell the story of the school and of the S.J.A. way of life.

In the future The Shield will serve as a link with the past, recalling to mind your high school days at Saint Joseph's Academy.

It is with a deep sense of pride that we, the staff, present to you the 1962 Shield, our first yearbook.

Charlene Gatz

Editor

YEARBOOK STAFF MEMBERS are Carolyn Acosta, Julie Nesbit, editor Charlene Gatz, Jeannie Posadas and Laurie Kyle. Sister Jane Louise served as advisor.

ALMA MATER

Lift up your voices to our Alma Mater.
Pledge her your loyalty
long as she may live.
Always remember the spirit and the way
Of Sanctity, Joy, and Action,
Dearest S.J.A.

High fly her banners to the world proclaiming Immortal standards in colors red and white—
Red for devotion, white
for purity;
Imparting her wisdom
through the years,
This is S.J.A.

HIS EXCELLENCY MOST REVEREND ROBERT E. TRACY
First Bishop of Baton Rouge
Installed November 8, 1961

In this, the first year of Bishop Tracy's administration of our new diocese, we consider it most appropriate that we dedicate our first issue of The Shield to his excellency.

The zeal, vigor and enthusiasm of this eminent man of God are abundantly evident in the tremendous work he has already accomplished in the organization of our new diocese. Yet despite his heavy duties of administration, Bishop Tracy has repeatedly demonstrated his fatherly concern for the individual.

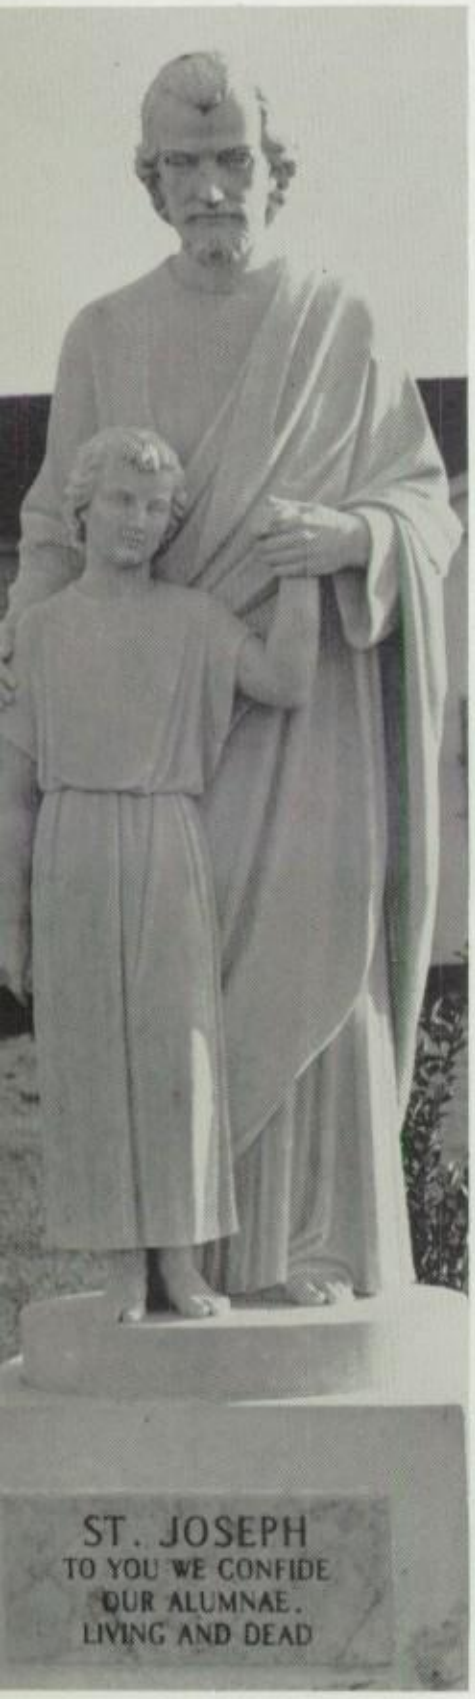
It is with a sense of deep pride in our spiritual shepherd that we respectfully dedicate this issue of The Shield.

May God bless him in his tireless work for His greater honor and glory and for the spiritual advancement of each one of us.

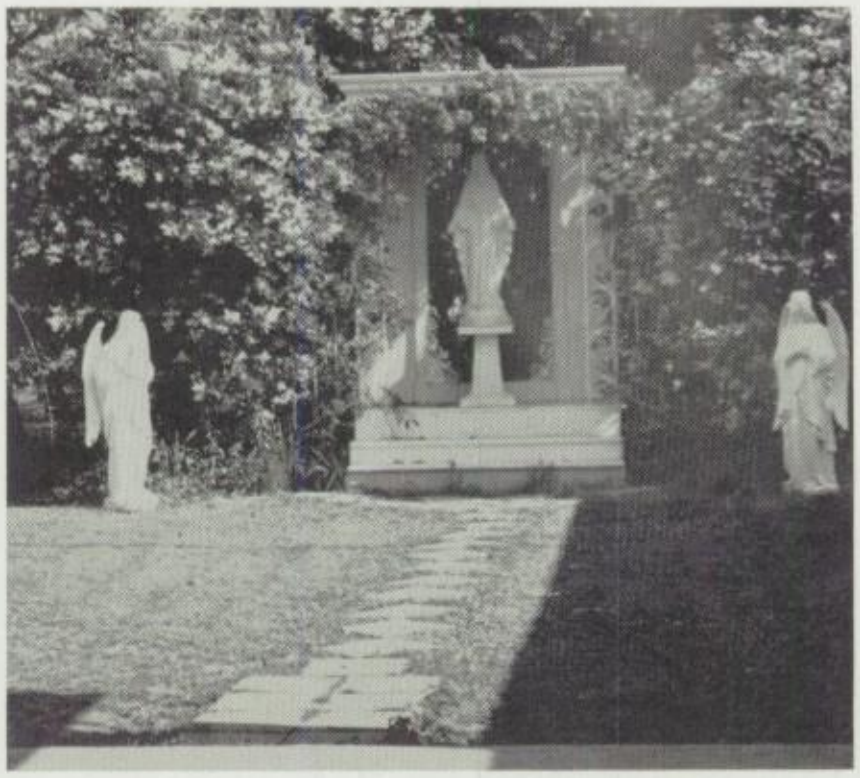
The Staff

S.J.A.'S MEDAILLE HALL (foreground) was built in 1947 to house the gym-auditorium. The school cafeteria as well as a temporary Sisters' convent and chapel are located downstairs. The building is named for Reverend John Peter Medaille, S.J., founder of the Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Joseph. The Academy building is seen in the background.

SPRING FINDS DOGWOOD BLOSSOMS adding lace to the campus as azaleas, bridal wreath and redbuds also bloom.



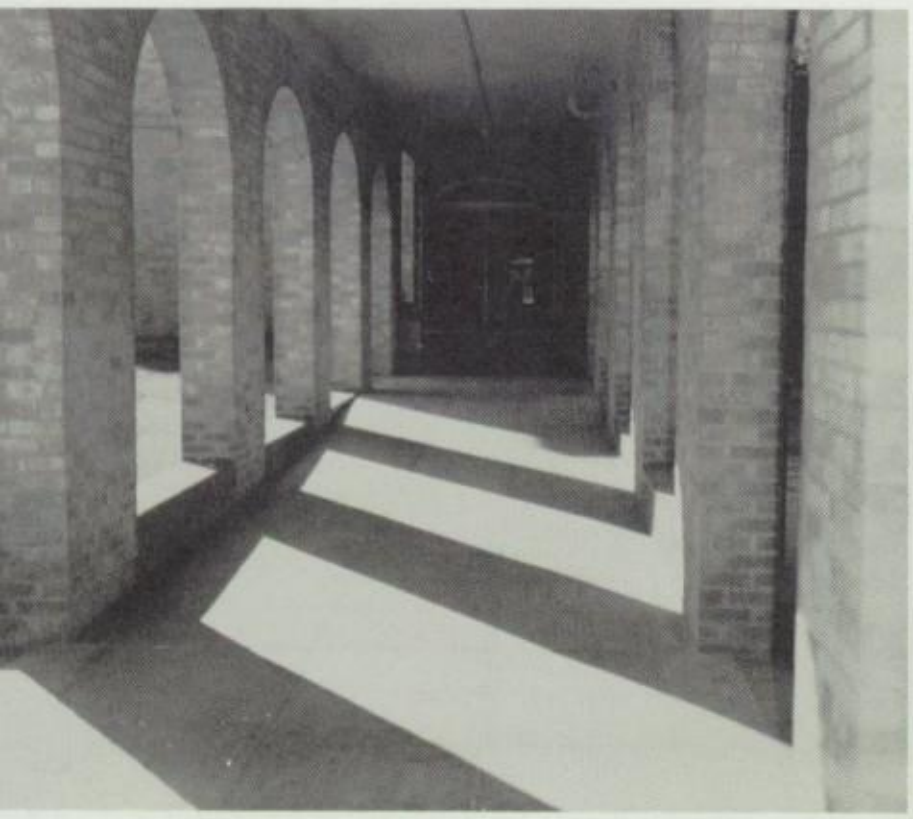
SAINT JOSEPH stands protector of the campus. The statue was a gift of the alumnae, when the group was under the direction of Sister M. Veronica, former teacher and principal.



THE SHRINE OF OUR LADY OF GRACE is adorned with climbing roses and flowering shrubs. The angel statues once guarded the entrance of the old Academy building when the school was located on Florida Street.

OAK TREES line the campus along Broussard Street as seen in this view of Medaille Hall.

SAINT JOSEPH'S ACADEMY, facing Broussard Street, was built in 1941 under the direction of Mother Mary Alice, who returned as superior this past year.



A GRACEFUL CLOISTER, the "breezeway" provides a covered passageway between the two main buildings.

AT NIGHT Medaille Hall is often the scene of a ball game, a play practice or a May Day rehearsal.

The Sisters and the School

SAINT JOSEPH
Patron of the Sisters
Model of teachers

The Sisters who operate Saint Joseph's Academy are Sisters of Saint Joseph. Their religious congregation was founded in 1650 in LePuy, France, by the Jesuit priest, Reverend John Peter Medaille, S.J.

During the French Revolution in 1789 all religious orders in France were suppressed, but shortly thereafter Mother St. John Fontbonne reorganized the congregation. Eventually the Motherhouse was established at Bourg, France.

From here, Sisters came to America in 1854 to work in Mississippi and Louisiana. In 1868 four Sisters arrived in Baton Rouge to take charge of an orphanage here and to open a school.

This school was first located on Seventh Street but was later moved to Fourth and Florida Streets, where the Sisters had obtained the old convent of the Sacred Heart.

In 1941 the school was moved to a new site on Broussard Street and the present Academy building opened its doors to classes.

Medaille Hall, a gym-auditorium building, was erected in 1947 and serves also as a temporary convent.

Plans are on the drawing board to build a permanent convent soon for the Sisters who staff Saint Joseph's Academy.

The MOTHERHOUSE at Bourg, France

THE CONVENT, as the old Academy was known, was located at the corner of Fourth and Florida Streets, and has now been razed to make way for progress in the downtown business district.

S.J.A.'S Superior

Mother Mary Alice

Returning to Saint Joseph's Academy as superior this year, Mother Alice is no stranger to Baton Rouge.

Mother was first assigned to teach at the Academy in 1929 and became principal in 1930.

As the city grew up around the school on Florida Street, Mother realized the desirability of moving to the suburbs and in 1941 completed her first building project—the present Saint Joseph's Academy located on a fifteen-acre tract. In 1947 Mother erected Medaille Hall, the gym-auditorium.

Called to New Orleans to duties on the Sisters' Provincial Council in 1952, Mother was charged with the responsibility of constructing the new novitiate, the Provincial House, a hospital at Houma, the complex of five buildings to which the New Orleans Academy moved last year, and a new Fontbonne residence-hotel for working girls in Cincinnati.

Her work elsewhere completed, Mother Alice has returned to Baton Rouge, where, with faith in the intercession of a carpenter—Saint Joseph—she hopes soon to build a children's home and a convent for the Sisters here.

MOTHER MARY ALICE

DISCUSSING BUILDING PLANS, Mother points out a proposed change to Sister Claire Germaine.

WATCHING IT GROW, Mother visits one of her building projects. Below are the present Academy buildings.

Classes

The Class of 1962

FULL-FLEDGED S.J.A.-IANS, these seniors have been at Saint Joseph's for their entire twelve years: (standing) Joan Menville, Linda Blanchard, Susan Daigle, George May, Annette Cacioppo, Cherry Foret, Linda Richardson, Meredith Kayser, Jackie Hood; (center row) Betty Innes, Laurie Kyle, Carolyn Acosta, Susan Walker, Jonnie Lu DeArmond; (front row) Rose Polito, Jane Farrier, Frances Broussard, Ollie Pierson and Gay Powers.

FLAG RAISING each day has been the privilege of the senio class. Here Shirley Kleinpeter and Pat Jacob prepare to hoi Old Glory.

Organizations

The Student Council

As the governing body of S.J.A., the Student Council is composed of club presidents and representatives of the high school classes. The chief purpose of the Council, organized in 1948, is to establish a closer union between the student body and the faculty. Because the members are the elected leaders of the school, they represent S.J.A. on various occasions.

OFFICERS OF THE STUDENT ORGANIZATION are Kathy Barrett, vice president; Diane Knobloch, president; Annette Cacioppo, secretary and Noel Bernard, treasurer.

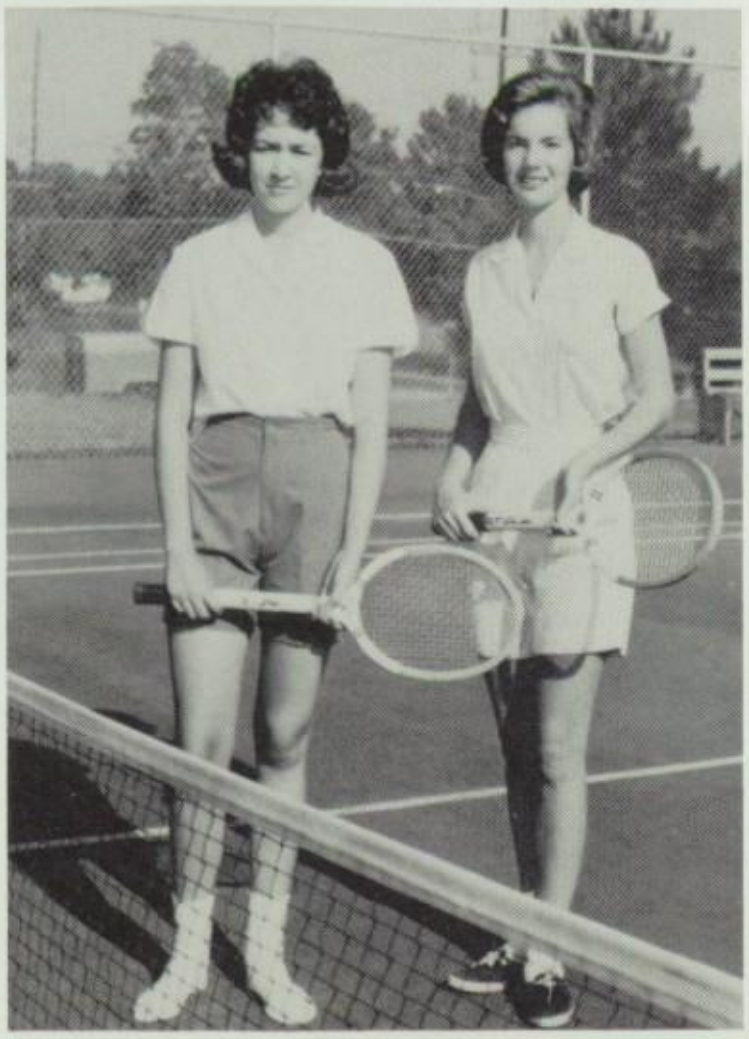
STUDENT COUNCILLOR Susan Daigle reminds seniors Shirley Kleinpeter and Cissy Donaldson of silence in the halls at the change of periods.

ROSARY CORPS for peace was one of the Student Council projects this year. Volunteers assembled in the chapel each Tuesday and Thursday morning to recite the Rosary.



TENNIS FINALISTS in the S.C. tournament are Kay Dupuis and Laurie Kyle.

REVISING THE CONSTITUTION of the Student Council means hours of careful planning. Working here on the new plan are Annette Cacioppo and Linda Goodman.

PARENT VOLLEYBALL NIGHT proved to be a huge success as a team composed of fathers played their daughters, and a mothers' team competed against their respective daughters.

C.S.M.C.

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade, one of S.J.A.'s largest organizations, arouses the active interest of students in the missionary work of the Church.

Its immediate aims are to give the students more intimate knowledge of missionary fields with their geographic and social backgrounds and to teach them of the work of the missionaries themselves; to inspire students to remember the missions in their prayers and other good works; and to encourage them to make personal sacrifices to promote the cause of the missions.

Sister Jane Louise is moderator.

CRUSADE OFFICERS check the location of an Indian Mission to which the C.S.M.C. will send aid. They are Dianne Taylor, treasurer; Marie Svendson, vice president; Susie Johnson, secretary; and Barbara Gogreve, president.

DEANERY OFFICER Ollie Pierson represents the S.J.A. unit as vice president for the Baton Rouge area C.S.M.C. union.

THE C.S.M.C. PROGRAM:

PRAYER
SACRIFICE

PRAYER. Crusaders here make a Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament on the first Sunday of the month. Students volunteer this hour of prayer for missionaries and for missionary vocations.

STUDY. Taking an exam on Saturday, these Crusaders are telling Sister Gregory what they have learned of methods of teaching catechism to small children. Sister conducted a course for those who wished to become certified CCD teachers.

SACRIFICE. Much time and energy goes into the preparations and activities of the annual Mission Day at S.J.A., when students adopt various projects to raise funds for the missions.

THE C.S.M.C. MOTTO:
"The Sacred Heart for the world,
The world for the Sacred Heart!"

A "SWAP SHOP" enables these class representatives to exchange clothing brought for needy families so that they can fit the sizes of their adopted families. (From left) Ann Dugas, Peggy Berniard, Suanne McKenney, Anne Keaty, Lynn Nesbit and Stella Dabadie. Other representatives are Laurie Kyle and Phyllis Meole.

LOADING THE CARS with gay Christmas boxes containing canned goods, clothing and toys, Crusaders Jeannie Posadas, Ollie Pierson, Barbara Armshaw, Susie Johnson and Barbara Gogreve prepare to get the cavalcade of cars en route to deliver the gifts.

THE BUS TRIP to the New Orleans convention finds Bette Selser, Lynn Nesbit, Helen Stander and Carol Gibbens already discussing the fun there'll be on the summer trip to Notre Dame and the national convention.

Thamel

Through S.J.A.'s drama organization, members grow in poise, in the cultivation of clear, well modulated voices, as well as in appreciation of the art of play production. Members are chosen by audition before a special committee.

Each year Thamel presents one major production and several one-act plays.

Sister Frances Louise is moderator.

OFFICERS THIS YEAR are Laurie Kyle, treasurer; Tal Bourgeois, secretary; Inda Watkins, vice president; and Linda Goodman, president.

BACKSTAGE CREWS are assigned for each production. Making important preparations for a play are Sue DeBlanc, Noblet Barry, Christine Cacioppo, Alice Macmurdo, Nancy Michell, and Colette Pierce.

MAKEUP ARTISTS also play a role in Thamel activities. Here are Betty Bonnette and Jonnie Lu DeArmond carefully applying stage makeup as Judy Landry and Adrienne Guarnieri sit patiently.

MRS. MELVIN MICHEL

READING LINES as they begin rehearsals for their skit are Tal Bourgeois, Betty Bonnette, Inda Watkins and Mignon Peters.

One-Act Pla

These opened Thamel's season in late November. Veteran members of the Dramatic Club teamed up as casts for the various plays while new members of the group served as backstage crews.

FRENCH REVOLUTION tenseness filled the atmosphere as these Thamelians presented "Idols." They are (standing) Rose Polito, Cathy Greco, Judy Koral; (seated) Pam Bourgeois, Jackie Billeaudeau and June Field.

DIVIDED LOYALTIES in an East Berlin situation formed the plot for actresses Paula Martrain, Jane Farrier, Barbara Gogreve and Suanne McKenney.

"WHITE IRIS," the story of an invalid, was enacted by Ann Wolfe, Laurie Kyle, Pat Funk and Mary Ann Reymond.

"OVER THE TEACUPS" Cynthia Manley and Edith Lunsford keep their secret from callers Rita Kaack and Beverly John.

Major Production

James Reach's Murder Mystery—

SUPERINTENDENT OF NURSES Edith Lunsford has problems with Frances Landry, the maid, who doesn't clean very well.

STUDENT NURSES Kathleen Augusta, Rita Kaack and Hardee Mosely greet newcomer Kathy Laney.

AT GUNPOINT, probationer June Field orders her roommate, Betty Bonnette,. to write a "confession."

POLICE INVESTIGATION brings Rose Polito (right) to question students at the nurses' home after the murder takes place. Nurses are Paula Martrain and Suanne McKenney.

"THANK YOU FOR DIRECTING US," comment Ann Wolfe and Betty Bonnette as they present tulips to Sister Frances Louise, moderator.

The Art Club

The Art Club offers to students an opportunity to cultivate talent and to increase their sense of aesthetic value.

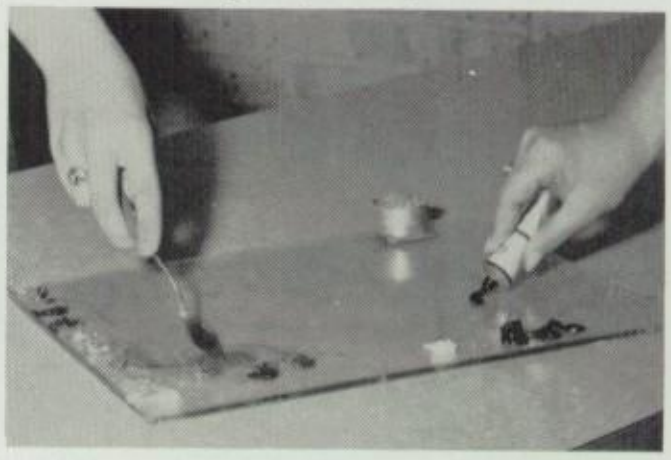
The aims of the Art Department are "exposure to art for all girls, awareness of art for almost all girls, skills in the mechanics of art for many girls, and true creativity and originality for some girls."

Oils, pastels, pencil, mosaics and paper sculpture are the media in which the members work. The source of ideas comes from field trips, still-life arrangements and pure imagination.

Mrs. Allan Brent is art instructor.

ART CLUB OFFICERS are Nancy Uter, president; Sharon Flanagan, secretary; Sheila Alleman, treasurer; and Pam Falgoust, vice president.

WORK IN OILS occupies this group as they transfer their sketches to the panels and paint them.



MIXING and blending colors is an art in itself.

COLORFUL STUDIES in oils attract the attention of these guests.

The Glee Club

Traditional in Catholic education, the study of music here at S.J.A. includes Gregorian chant and polyphonic music. In songs, old and new, students find much enjoyment. Members, accepted after audition, can earn a half credit a year. Mrs. E. A. Rachal is director, and Sister Irene Marie is moderator.

GLEE CLUB OFFICERS include Jane Champagne, treasurer; Kathy Barrett, president; Ollie Pierson, vice president and Jeannie Posadas, secretary.

S.J.A.'S SENIOR GLEE CLUB, a blend of sixty-six voices, here performs at one of their programs in Medaille Hall. Mrs E. A. Rachal is conducting. Betty Selser is at the piano with Erin O'Brien assisting her.

TRIO MEMBERS who represented the Glee Club at the State Music Rally are Gay Powers, alto; Julie Nesbit, second soprano; and Kathy Barrett, first soprano.

A GLEE CLUB SALUTE TO BROADWAY finds this trio singing "Happy Talk" from South Pacific: Ollie Pierson, soprano; Susan Walker, second soprano; and Susan Daigle, alto.

"HEATHER ON THE HILL" from Brigadoon is the duet sung by Cheryl Smith and Julie Nesbit in the recital featuring Broadway hits.

"GRADUATION DAY" is their number as Ollie Pierson, Susan Walker and Susan Daigle team up to make music. Accompanying them at the piano is Kathy Barrett, Glee Club president.

SOLOIST Joyce Greer sings the title song from Brigadoon. Joyce won a "superior" at State Rally.

RIDING in an imaginary "Surrey With the Fringe on Top" are Susan Cazedessus and Dickie Hill as they pantomime a joint number by the S.J.A. and C.H.S. Glee Clubs.

THE FRESHMAN CHORUS, directed by Mrs. Rachal, here makes its debut singing "Getting to Know You" from King and I.

Student Prints

The school newspaper this year won a Medalist award from Columbia Scholastic Press Association and first place at the Louisiana State Literary Rally.

Members of the staff must maintain a scholastic average of C with a B in English.

Students interested in joining the staff make personal application and participate in tryouts for staff positions. Sister Jane Louise is staff advisor.

AN INTERVIEW with Ogden Nash, humorous poet, finds reporter Dianne Taylor on the job. Mr. Nash was in Baton Rouge for a lecture in January.

AT THE PRESS WORKSHOP, with staffers from Gleanings of S.J.A., New Orleans, as guests, Student Printers exchange ideas and hear Jane Rodriguez of New Orleans discuss news story writing. The weekend workshop concluded with attendance at the Louisiana Scholastic Press Meet at L.S.U. on Monday.

A PAPER RABBIT is the handiwork of Kitty Arbour, soph reporter, and guest Jane O'Connell. At their press party, staffers competed for the best newspaper-sculpture creation.

Alpha

The honor society of the school, Alpha has as its objective high scholastic achievement and greater cultural advancement. It is composed of members who maintain a B in conduct and at least a 3.5 scholastic average with no grade below C.

Freshmen are admitted only after their first semester.

Mrs. Dan McMahon is moderator.

ALPHA OFFICERS this year are Erin O'Brien, secretary; Dianne Taylor, treasurer; Charlene Gatz, vice president; and Jean Pollard, president.

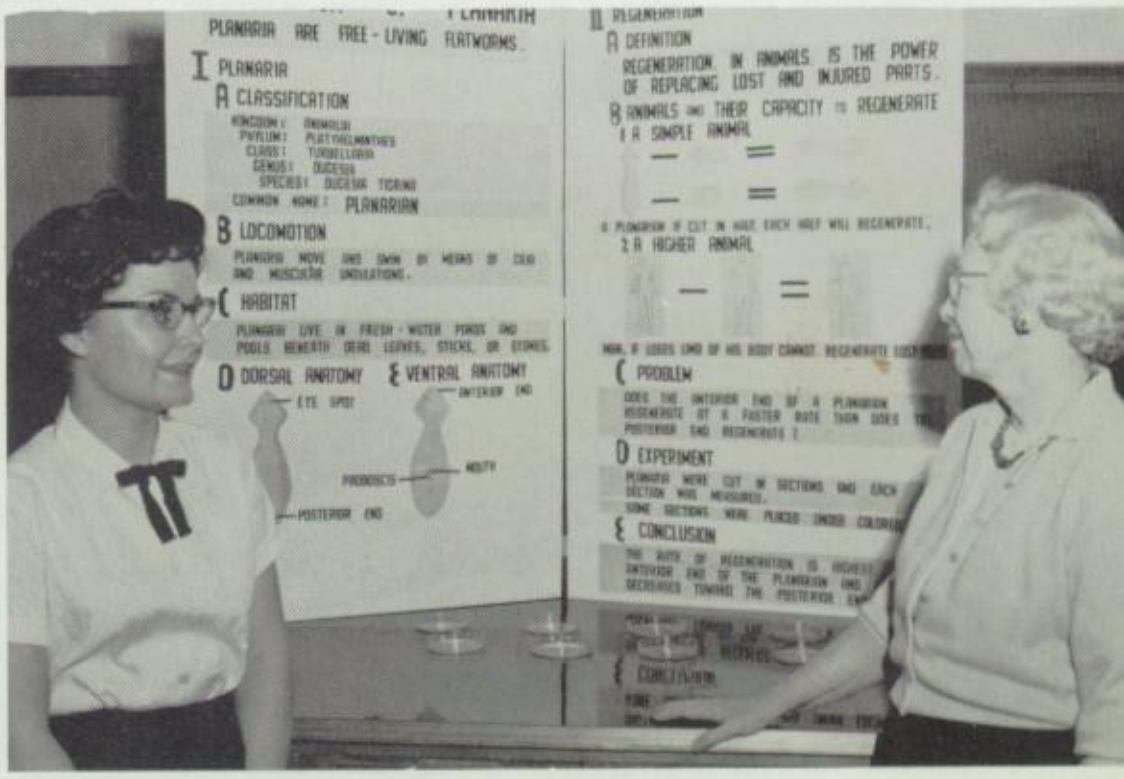
Science Club

One of the newer clubs at S.J.A. is the Science Club formed under the direction of Miss Frances Dunbar.

Experiments and field trips spur the curiosity of students who wish to learn more of the marvels of science.

WATCHING INTENTLY as Miss Dunbar demonstrates an experiment are officers Paula Martrain, treasurer; Meredith Kayser, secretary; Laurie Kyle, vice president; and Susan Walker, president.

JUDY PREJEAN wonders if she will obtain the desired chemical reaction.



SCIENCE FAIR PROJECTS have kept members busy; and Sandra Casemore, pictured here with Miss Dunbar, won regional honors for her study of planaria.

PRESIDENT Susan Walker introduces the speaker from NASA.

GLENN'S CAPSULE in miniature intrigues seniors Betty Innes, Rosmund Hart, Mary Ann Barbre and Kathy Barrett.

LIBRARY CLUB OFFICERS are Susie Johnson, treasurer; Ann Hobgood, secretary; Deanie Comeaux, vice president; and Annette Cacioppo, president.

The Library Club

Members of this group endeavor to promote interest in general reading and reference work. They assist the librarians with circulation of books, mechanical preparation of new books, mending, care of periodicals and newspapers, publicity work and library housekeeping.

S.J.A.'s library this year was privileged to have the traveling science library on loan from the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the National Science Foundation.

In cooperation with the English teachers the library launched a summer reading program sponsored by the National Catholic Educational Association and provided students with lists of suggested summer reading.

S.J.A.'S LIBRARY, which occupies the northwest corner of the main floor, provides a quiet spot for relaxed study, reading, or research.

DAILY NEWSPAPERS, magazines, reference books and general reading materials are available at S.J.A.'s library.

CATHERINE McGREW, student librarian's aid, selects book jackets for a bulletin board display.

REFERENCE WORK IN PERIODICALS keeps aid Gayle Myers busy checking the back files for fellow students.

SUSAN CAZEDESSUS browses through a new magazine issue.

ALANA DIGWEED files circulation cards at the desk while Christine Cacioppo and Sharon Braud examine the traveling science books.

Debate

A new activity at S.J.A., debate now has twelve members. Interested students took summer classes with Mrs. Melvin Michel and worked throughout the year before entering several speech events and the State Rally. Despite their newness, S.J.A. debaters collected an enviable record of "superior" and "excellent" ratings and outdid themselves in winning city championship in the first local debate tournament sponsored for high schools here.

Mrs. Michel is debate coach.

VARSITY DEBATERS Laurie Kyle, Barbara Gogreve, Betty Innes and Cynthia Manley agree on tactics and strategy they plan to use in the next match. These girls won the city debate championship for S.J.A.

THE DEBATE SQUAD at S.J.A. includes (front row) Mary Ann Reymond, Betty Innes, Laurie Kyle, Barbara Gogreve and Paula Martrain; (center row) Cynthia Manley, Mary Ann Barbre, Charlene Gatz and Jane Farrier; (top row) Pam Bourgeois, Ann Wolfe and Diane Knobloch.

EN ROUTE TO LAFAYETTE and the district speech festival, Mrs. Michel gives pointers to Ann and Pam.

AT THE MOTEL Barbara reviews her notes.

AWAITING RESULTS are Mrs. Michel, Judy Landry, Mary Ann Reymond, Cynthia Manley, Pam Bourgeois, Ann Wolfe, Linda Goodman and Laurie Kyle.

Cheerleaders

Leading pep squads in yells for both the Bruins of nearby Catholic High School and the Redsticker teams has kept cheerleaders very busy.

CHEERING REDSTICKERS are (top) Julie Nesbit and Cherry Foret and (bottom) Nancy Uter and Jonnie Lu DeArmond.

Redstickers

S.J.A.'s basketball team takes its name from the city of Baton Rouge.

Interested students try out for the team in the fall and begin practices for the league season. Any girl with passing grades and a health certificate is eligible to compete.

Mrs. Charles Antrobus is assistant coach. Sister Irene Marie is coach-moderator of the athletic teams.

VARSITY REDSTICKERS are Cissy Donaldson, guard; Lurline Hamilton, guard or forward; Margie Rhyne, guard; Ann Hobgood, guard; Diane Knobloch, forward; and Jean Pollard, forward. Jean was captain for the '61-'62 season.

"WATCH THOSE PASSES, JEAN," warn Sister Irene Marie, coach-moderator, and Mrs. Charles Antrobus, assistant coach.

"HANDS OFF. IT'S MINE!" Lurline Hamilton grabs a rebound from the backstop.

"WHOOSH! Didn't even touch the rim!"

TIME OUT and a discussion of the best strategy for those swift opponents.

BOTH TEAMS WORE RED, so here we are with an addition to our 'Sticker suits. (From left) Jean Pollard, Lurline Hamilton, Diane Knobloch, Ann Hobgood and Cissy Donaldson.

GOLDJAYS FROM THE BAY are traditional rivals for the Redstickers. Here the junior varsity teams are in action.

TEAM MANAGERS Ann Keaty and Annette Richard check the first aid kit before leaving for an invitational tournament.

JUMP! Redstickers and Goldjays tense as they watch the tap off.

Boosters

form the backbone of the cheering sections as they yell in turn for S.J.A.'s Redsticker teams and for Catholic High's Golden Bruins.

During intermissions at the football games the Boosters join the C.H.S. band in presenting a halftime show of precision drills.

SQUAD CAPTAINS are Jackie Hood, Linda Goodman, Betty Bonnette and Cheryl Bertaut.

Activities

Freshman Initiation Party and Candlelight Ceremony

FRACTURED FAIRY TALES form the theme for the seniors' initiation party for the freshman classes. Characters from nursery rhymes and fairy tales (above) are hostesses.

LITTLE MISS MUFFET, Lynn Noeske, is frightened by the spider.

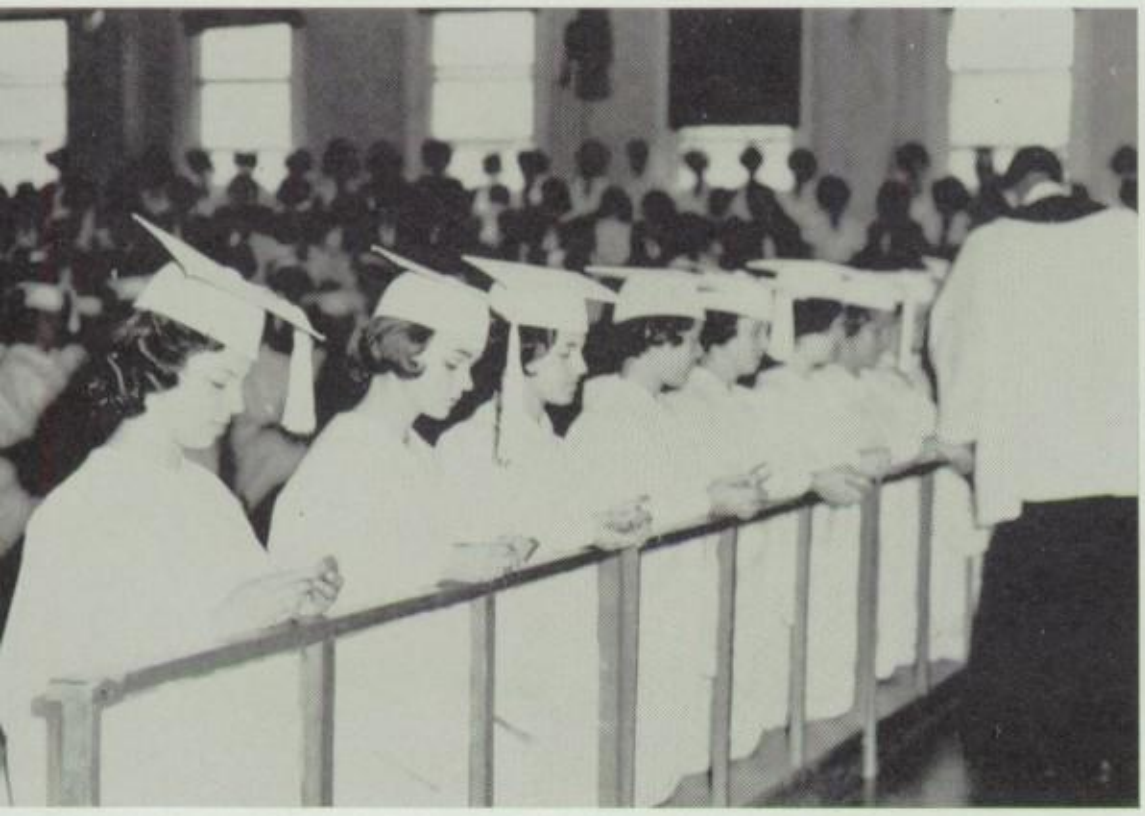
UNFORTUNATE FRESHMEN are here drafted to attend the Mad Hatter's tea party. Bo-peep, Dandy-lion and Mother Goose look on.

RAPUNZEL's tower is guarded by Dandy-lion, Jonnie Lu DeArmond.

HERE'S TO OUR S.J.A.! sing seniors and freshmen in the solemn candlelight pledge ceremony held in the evening in Medaille Hall.

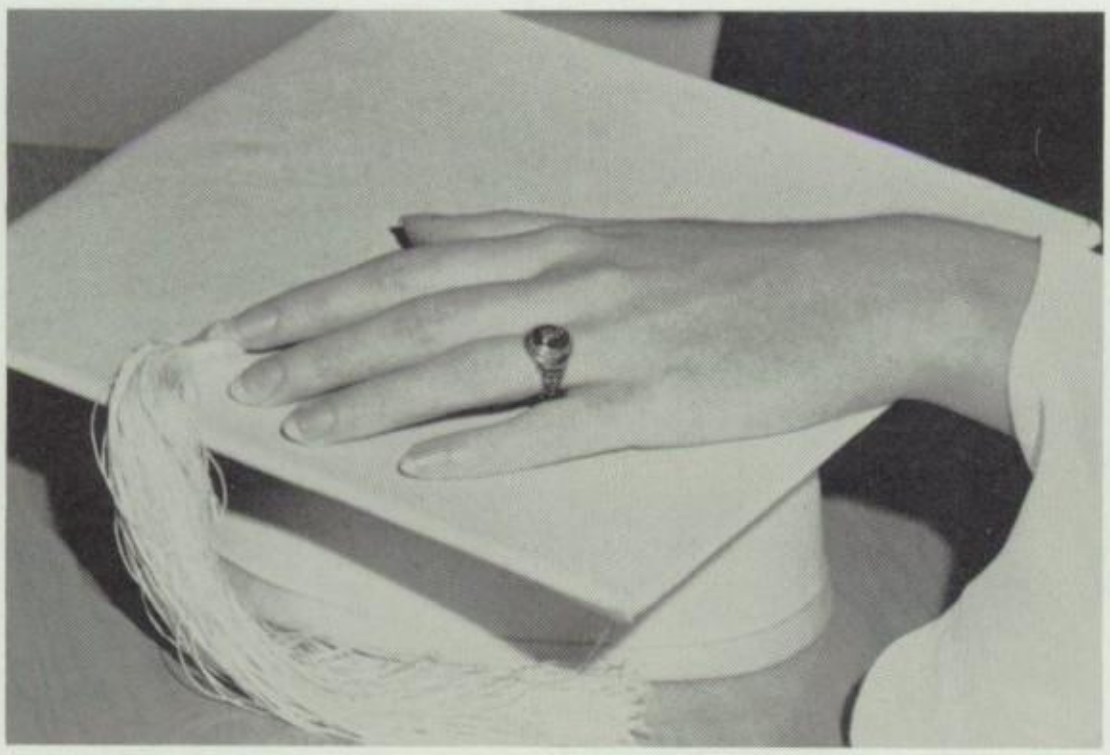
FRESHIES Bernadette Alello and Lillian Callihan light their candles from senior Cheryl Smith.

Senior Ring Ceremony and Banquet



ASS RINGS AT LAST! Father Lester Lacassagne distributes the rings seniors. In the foreground are Paula Martrain, Pam Falgoust and Janet nsur.

IN SOLEMN CEREMONY the class rings are blessed before the altar erected for the occasion in Medaille Hall. Seniors wait expectantly for their rings.



THE TRADITIONAL RING worn by S.J.A. graduates has the graceful shield of the Sisters of Saint Joseph mounted on black onyx. The lily engraved on the shield represents purity of heart while the black onyx symbolizes the dignity of a child of God.

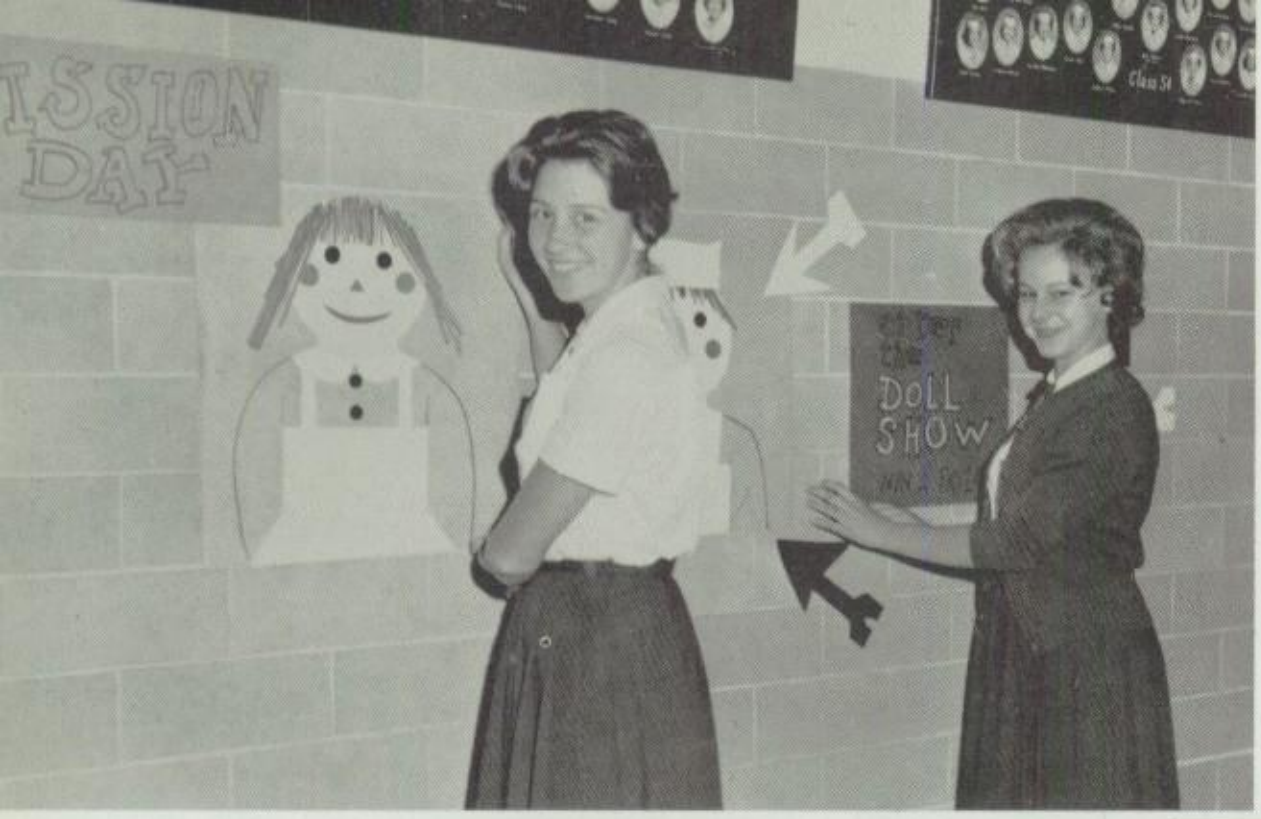
A TOAST TO THE FUTURE is given by Julie Nesbit, Carolyn Acosta, Shirley Kleinpeter and Pat Jacob at the ring banquet.

ENIORS GATHER for the annual Founders' Day banquet given on ne occasion of their ring ceremony, held in October.

GUESTS OF THE SISTERS, seniors are feted in the school cafeteria.

Mission Day

Classes vie with one another on this day in mid-October as they sponsor different activities to raise funds for the missions. Prayer, hard work and lots of sticky fun are typical of this day.



A DOLL SHOW is announced for Mission Day as Lucille Blouin and Gayle Persac place posters in the hall.

CHICKEN SALAD SANDWICHES by the "thousands" are prepared by a committee of seniors as the cafeteria closes down for the day.

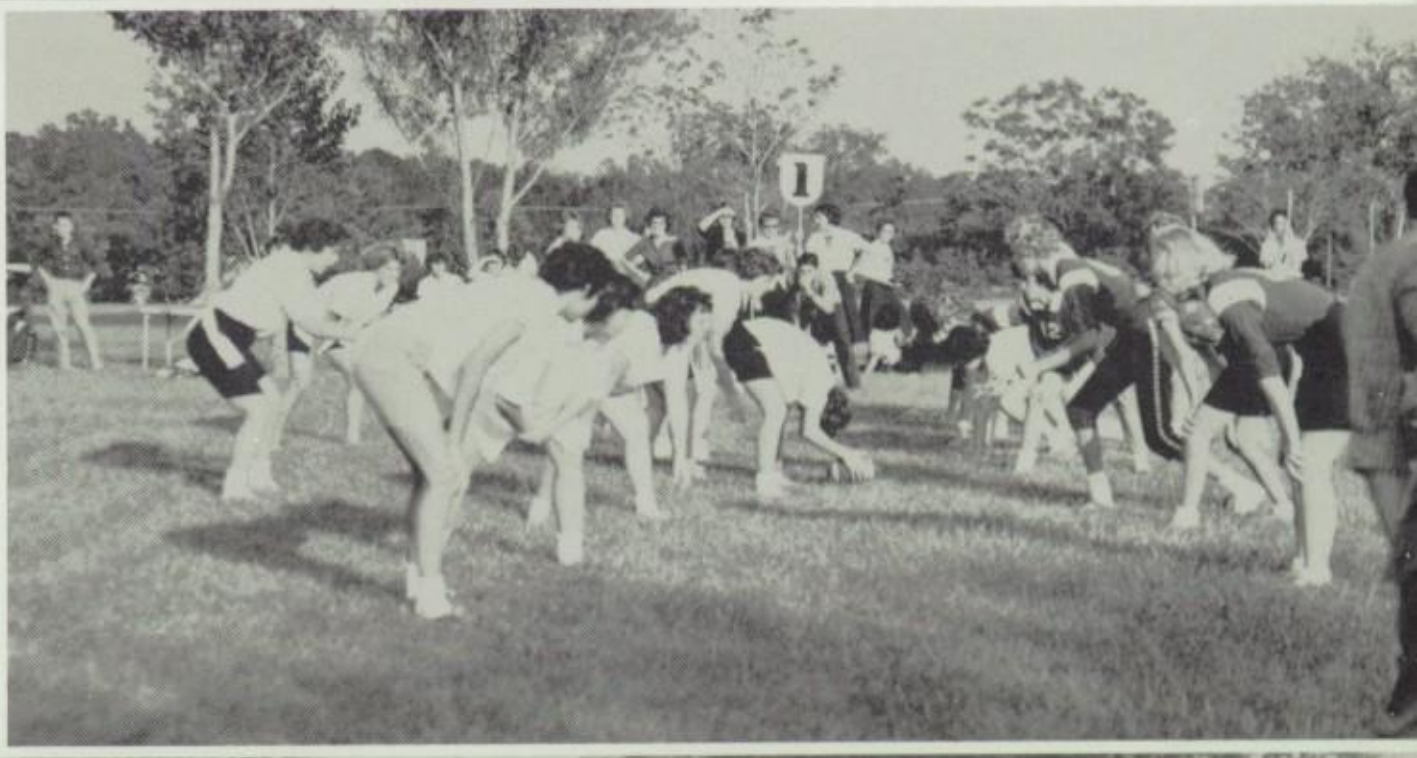
FROM THE BALCONY of Room 29 the Mission Day booths make an interesting picture.

THE GRAB BAG always fascinates young visitors like these. Snowballs, balloons, cotton candy, ice cream and games add to the excitement.

DOLLS AND STUFFED ANIMALS fascinate little girls, but boys seem to prefer balloons. Here Kathy Hwass, Betty Heil, Nancy Griggs and Lucy Gilbert show the collection of prize-winning dolls and toys entered by students of the elementary school.

A MERRY-GO-ROUND keeps the small fry occupied as Sharon Roberts waits nearby with balloons.

A POWDER-PUFF FOOTBALL GAME adds a hilarious comedy of errors as climax of the day's activities.



SPECTATORS line the sidelines as C.H.S. students come over for the final event of Mission Day, the powder-puff football game. Then came clean-up operations and a tally of this year's proceeds: more than fifteen hundred dollars.

Christmas at S.J.A.

is a time that every S.J.A.ian loves. A special spirit prevails during the Advent season, which is climaxed at the school with the Nativity program.

LIGHTING THE ADVENT WREATH is a traditional Advent custom at S.J.A. Diane Knobloch, student body president, prepares to light the candles as class presidents Judy Landry, Alice Svendson and Lurline Hamilton look on.

EACH YEAR at Christmas time the Sisters of Saint Joseph honor their fellow faculty members at a festive dinner.

TRIMMING THE TREE is another phase of Yuletide activity here at school. In addition to the tree in the cafeteria, resident students usually decorate one for the Cottage. Gail Buras and Sharon Roberts here trim a tree.

SORTING CLOTHES AND TOYS for their adopted needy family are juniors Rosemary Milano, Lynne Meole, Lou Staples and Glenda Evans.

A NATIVITY TABLEAU prepared by members of the Dramatic Club is traditional for the last day of school before the holidays. During the program students make their offerings of canned goods and clothing for the poor.

VISITS TO THE CHAPEL during the Christmas season always include a visit to the crib. Pictured here are Glenda Evans and Anne Dugas.

FIRST GRADERS present their version of the Christmas story: Marilyn Staples as Saint Joseph, Gail Wetzel as Blessed Mother and Janice Manley as the Angel.

SOPHOMORES, directed by Mrs. E. Rachal, sing their Christmas carol after offering gifts to the Christ Child. Angels from the tableau are seen at rear.

Intramurals

Friendly class rivalry becomes a part of S.J.A. when players don class colors for the intramural contests. In this year's competition sophomores were victors in volleyball, and the seniors retained their basketball crown.

Added to the excitement of the games is the custom of decorating pep squad sections with colorful themes.

SPIKE IT! Here seniors battle to keep the ball aloft. Volleyball intramurals, postponed because of storm warnings, were held this year during activity period.

BASKETBALL WINNERS, just after awards, are showing their plaque around to senior players and boosters.

BEST DECORATIONS went to the Senior Suds. Balloons and soap bubbles helped the super suds team to bleach out all opposition. Their washing machine is seen in the foreground.

I'M FOREVER BLOWING BUBBLES . . . Sister Alice Marie here shows her pep squad how to do it.

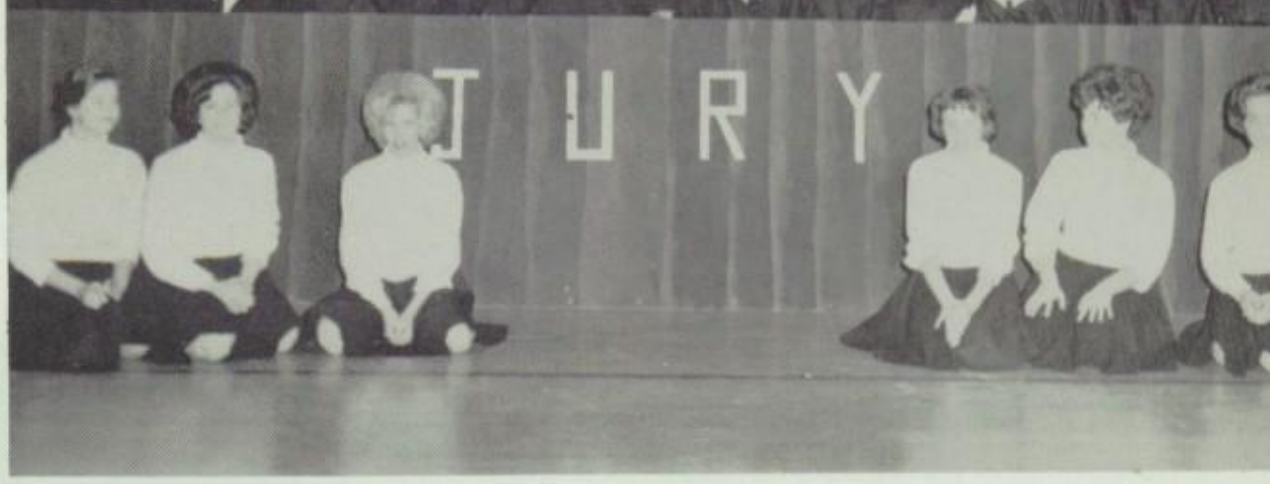
FRESHMEN JURISTS sit in solemn array as they defend frosh honors. The skit prepared by the freshmen won top honors in that division.



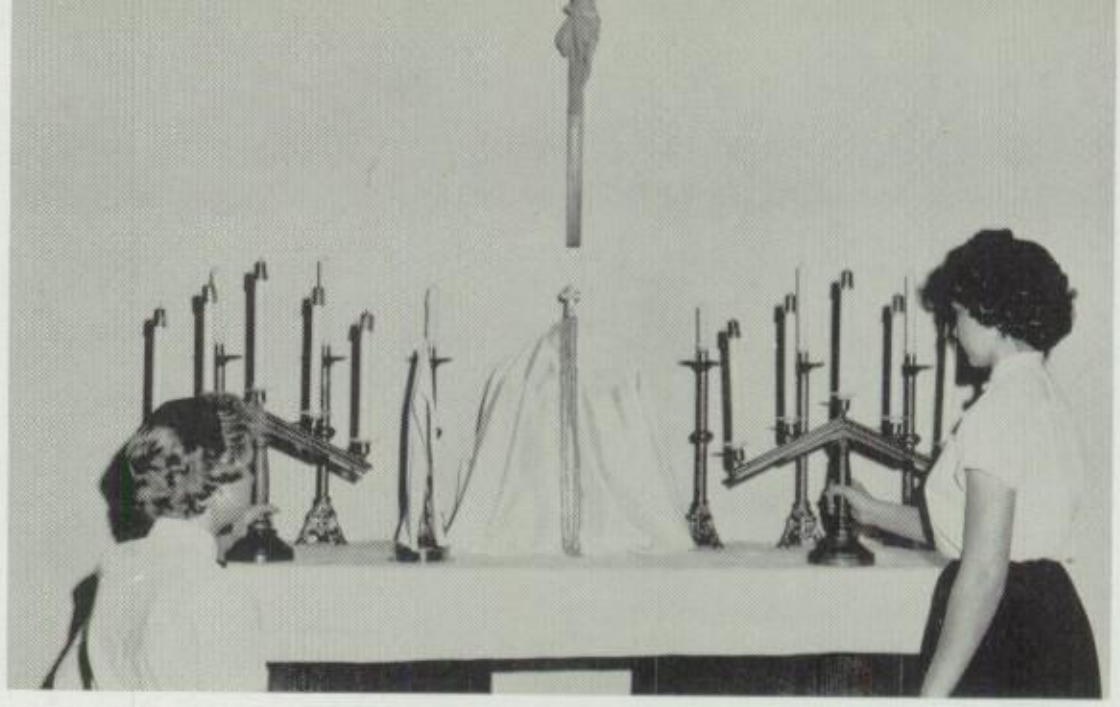
WITNESSES produce the evidence that seniors are guilty. Here Anne Dugas shows the mystery ball as Lillian Callihan, Gayle Barrett and Hardee Moseley look on.

DECORATIONS usually go up in a hurry before intramurals. Here a crew arranges the backdrop as the junior's dinosaur watches.

Annual Retreats

Class schedules are halted, textbooks put aside, and extracurricular activities banned for the biggest event of the year, the annual three-day retreat scheduled for each class. This intimacy with Christ offers the students an opportunity to check spiritual accounts and to plan for self improvement.

Each class has a separate weekend retreat conducted at S.J.A. by a Jesuit Father. Retreats are generally scheduled during spring.



STUDENT SACRISTANS Carolyn Reitz and Virgie Ellis check that the temporary altar is in readiness for the opening talk and Benediction for the soph retreat.

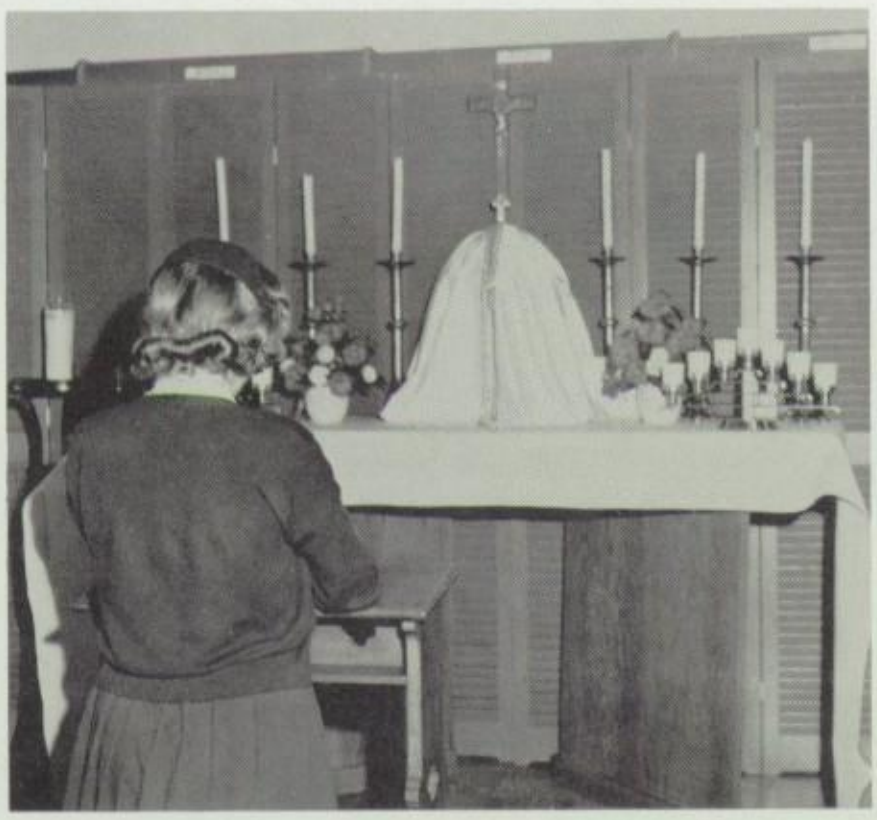
A QUIET TIME to read and think finds juniors Lynne Meole and Dianne Taylor absorbed in personal meditation in the sunshine by the driveway.

THE SORROWFUL MYSTERIES of the Rosary are more meaningful when recited before the campus outdoor crucifix. Kneeling here are sophs Sandra Romano and Annette Richard.

SURROUNDED BY CLOVER, an unidentified freshman thoughtfully reads from the life of a saint.

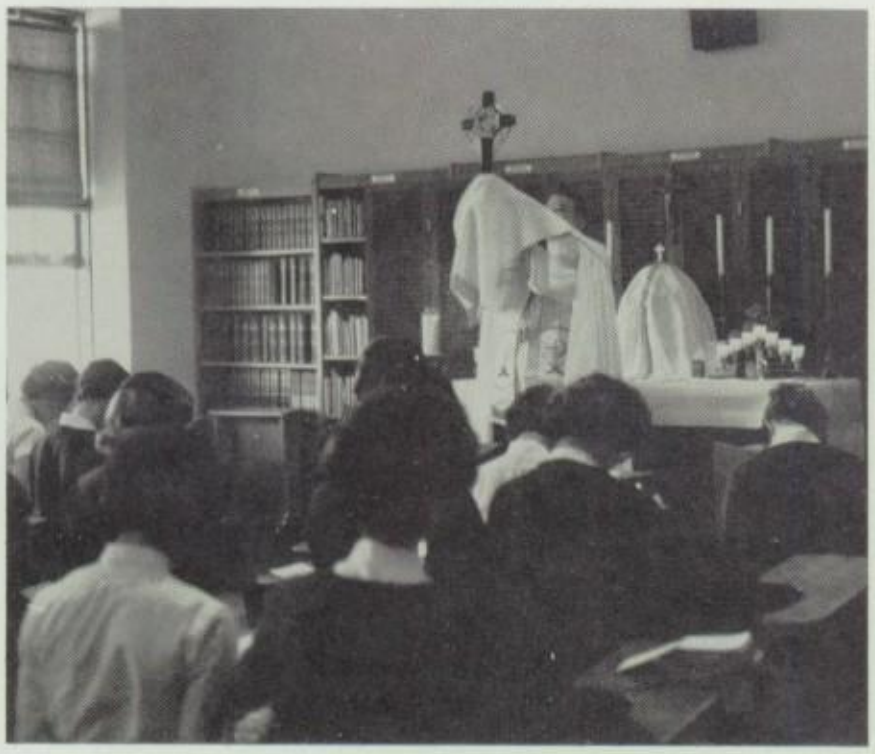
SEEKING GUIDANCE, junior Glenda Evans chats with Father J. E. Vessels, S.J., about her plans for after graduation.

"THIS WAS FORMERLY A ROMAN TOGA," comments Father Donald Didier, S.J., as he explains the priest's vestments at the freshman retreat. Father Didier also conducted the soph retreat this year.



HONOR GUARD MEMBER Jeannie Posadas takes her turn keeping watch before the Blessed Sacrament during the senior retreat.

RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL PROMISES here finds seniors receiving lighted candles from Father Auguste Coyle, S.J. Cherry Foret and Ollie Pierson assist as Paula Martrain receives her candle.



A FINAL BLESSING and the retreat is over. Firm resolutions have been made, and seniors are ready to prove their fidelity as they resume busy school days. Long will they remember Father's amusing stories of Anastasie and Jean Baptist.

AN EXPLOSION OF GREETINGS marks the happy ending of retreats. Here freshies dismantle their chapel and set the classrooms back in order.

ACTIVE CCD WORKERS include: (standing) Alice Svendson, Lynn Nesbit, Marie Svendson, Anne Keaty, Mary Ann Barbre, Kathy Barrett, Ann Wolfe, Colette Pierce, Kathleen Richardson, Catherine McGrew, Virgie Ellis, Carol Morel, Edith Lunsford and Pam Falgoust; (seated) Sandra Casemore, Diane Knobloch, Jane Farrier, Stella Dabadie, Joyce Greer, Dotty Bowers, Cherry Foret, Sharon Flanagan, Rita Kaack and Kitty Arbour.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine

As part of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade program, students volunteer to assist with CCD catechism classes for public school children or for exceptional children. These students prepare for their work by taking a special teacher-training course which includes observation of classes and practice teaching under supervision.

PRACTICE TEACHING, Kathleen Richardson explains the Sacrament of Extreme Unction to third graders: Bunny Prosser, Leslie Aertker and Denise Rougon as others kneel by the "bedside."

CONFRATERNITY DIRECTOR, Reverend Lester Lacassagne awards a teacher's certificate to Anne Keaty at the CCD graduation ceremony.

SISTER GREGORY poses with the graduates of her teacher-training class: (front) Alice Svendson, Anne Keaty, Bernadette Alise, Kitty Arbour, Edith Lunsford, Ann Wolfe, and Rita Kaack; (back) Carol Morel, Virgie Ellis, Dotty Bowers, Marie Svendson, Sister Gregory, Kathleen Richardson, Lynn Nesbit and Colette Pierce.

TENNIS ENTHUSIASTS Sallie D'Amico, Sharon Flanagan, Lucille DeLaune and Lucille Blouin prepare for a game of doubles with Mrs. Charles Antrobus, instructor, watching. Mrs. Antrobus personally organized a drive to get the new tennis courts.

VOLLEYBALL INTRAMURALS, postponed because of hurricane weather, were held instead during the activity period. Sophomores were victorious over the juniors in the final game.

DELEGATES TO PLAY-DAY at Istrouma are Linda Griggs, Ann Hobgood, Lucille DeLaune, Alice Svendson, Lurline Hamilton and Margie Rhyne.

May Crowning

Students traditionally crown the Blessed Virgin Mary as Queen of S.J.A. during a solemn ceremony held in early May. Each class elects one girl for the privilege of being in the honor guard. Seniors choose the girl who will crown the statue. Kathy Barrett received the honor.

This year Reverend William Greene presided over the ceremony, spoke on Our Lady as a model for young women, and concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

MARY'S STATUE in the chapel sees many a student drop in for a quick visit before or after classes.

AN OFFERING OF FLOWERS is placed before the statue during the crowning ceremony held on the stage in Medaille Hall.

KATHY BARRETT has just crowned the statue of the Blessed Virgin as members of the honor guard stand by. They are (from left) Susan Snee, Libby Alexander, Linda Griggs, Laurie Kyle, Kathy Barrett, Barbara Gogreve, Lynne Meole, Flo Jacob and Gayle Myers.

The Junior-Senior Prom ——

"RED SAILS IN THE SUNSET" sets the theme in these decorations on the stage as Betty Holliday, Bette Selser, Erin O'Brien and Cheryl Bertaut paint "rocks" for the island.

ANOTHER COCONUT is tied on the palm trees that line the sides of the gym. Sharon Flanagan is on the ladder with Rosemary Milano looking on.

THE LIGHTHOUSE ISLAND in the center of the dance floor with its revolving lighthouse beacon creates a saltwater atmosphere.

TIME OUT FOR REFRESHMENTS. Sophomore Marie Svendson here serves punch to guests.

THE BREEZEWAY BALCONY provides a cool spot for Cleve Fair, Charleen Campagna, George Bonfanti, Thomas Lorio, Linda Goodman, Ronnie Bourgeois, Raymond Loup and Judy Hamilton.

"Red Sails in the Sunset"

THE PICTURE NOOK in the lobby keeps the photographer busy as couples pose before a sunset backdrop.

MUSIC of Buddy Stewart's band fills Medaille Hall.

SAILOR GIRLS are servers at the punch tables. Here are (front) Betty McKenney, Deanie Comeaux, Carolyn Reitz, Lurline Hamilton; (back) Marie Svendson, Judy Landry and Ann Keaty.

AND SO, GOODNIGHT. Under the arch are Cheryl Smith and her escort, Gordon Barré.

The May Day Pageant—

"Something Wonderful"

The outstanding project of the sophomore class is their preparation of the annual May Day pageant honoring the senior class and, in particular, the outstanding senior, who is crowned May Queen.

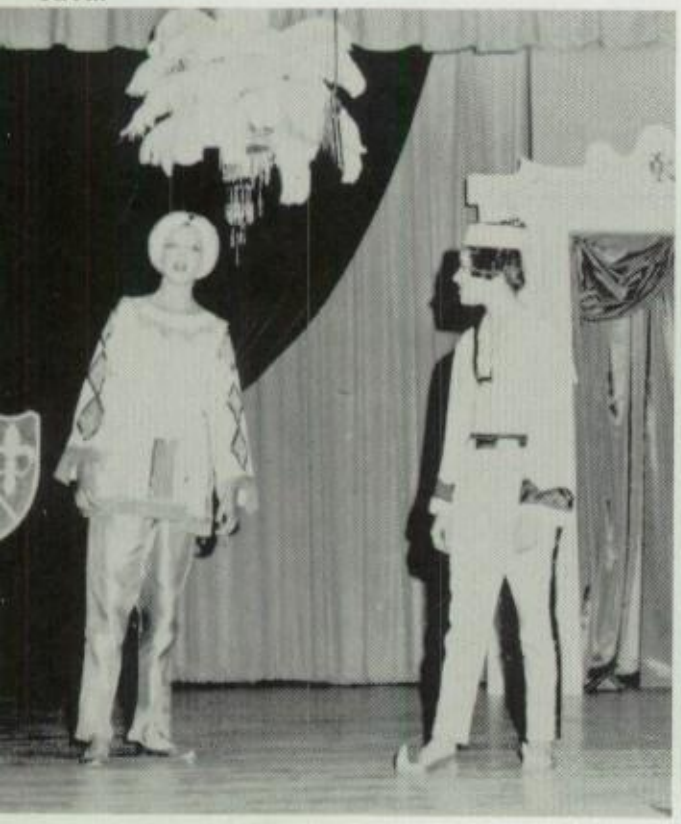
Physical education classes specialize in ballet lessons and in the spring begin composing dances to be used in May Day.

This year's pageant, under the direction of Sister Irene Marie and Mrs. Dan McMahon, was entitled "Something Wonderful."

ARTISTS ON THE JOB paint a large United States mural. They are Annette Richard, Kitty Arbour, Dotty Bowers; (back) Sister Irene Marie and Colette Pierce.

PLANNING STAGE SETS takes a lot of careful consideration. Here Sister Irene Marie, Mrs. Brent, Sister Alice Marie, Sister Jean, Kitty Arbour and Annette Richard discuss a backdrop idea.

PRINCE ERIC OF CAMBRIA (Carolyn Reitz) enters with Philip (June Field) as the audience applauds at the identity of the prince.



A SOLO by Prince Eric tells of his search for a queen.

PEOPLE OF CAMBRIA, assembled at the palace, form the chorus.

While away from Cambria on business, Prince Eric attends an international festival at the U. N. It is while here that he learns of a usurper in his kingdom. The Prince renews his determination to find a queen whose sterling character and outstanding leadership will aid him in uniting the people of his kingdom.

PEACE DANCERS are the student ballet teachers for the class: (standing) Judy Orillion, Mavis Heyl, Mary Jane Golden, Ellen Blossman; (kneeling) Mignon Peters and Connie Fairbanks.

IRISH COLLEEN Libby Kleinpeter sings about "a little bit of heaven" as Carol Termini, Gayle Myers, Catherine McGrew, Colette Pierce, Gloria Martrain and Kathleen McDonald stand by.

SIAMESE GIRLS pose before they dance: Allen Breazeale, Cheryl Clayton, Estelle Brousseau, Pam Bourgeois, Charlotte Dial and Linda Griggs.

THE VILLAIN'S COHORTS dance a threat. They are Cynthia Manley, Jackie Billeaudeau, Edith Lunsford, Penny Nichols and Kathy Schwab

AT THE U. N. FESTIVAL, Kay Pecoraro, Gail DeLouise and Janet Pourciau dance as matadors. In the back are JoAnne Vince and Rose Mary D'Agostino.

Prince Eric tours beautiful spots in the United States in search of his queen and finally finds her in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, at S.J.A.

The identity of the queen is kept secret until the climax of the pageant when the Prince goes out into the audience to select her from among the seniors. She is chosen by secret ballot of her classmates, the sophomores and the faculty. The votes are counted only minutes before the performance begins. The title of May Queen is the highest honor annually given to a senior.

STROLLERS on the "Sidewalks of New York" dance a soft shoe number. They are Marie Svendson, Deanie Comeaux and Kitty Arbour.

"SHENANDOAH, How I Love Thee," is the song of the trio: Karen Thompson, Kathleen Richardson and Patty DeFoe as Annette Richard looks on.

O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A! is the lively music for the dancers from this part of the United States.

PRINCE ERIC SELECTS DIANE as May Queen amid enthusiastic applause.

HER MAJESTY, Queen Diane Knobloch reigns. With her are Philip (June Field) and Prince Eric (Carolyn Reitz).

Freshie-Senior Picnic

FRESHMEN entertained the seniors at the annual freshie-senior picnic held this year on May 17. For the first time classes chose to hold the event on the campus in the "orchard."

FRESHMEN provided the box lunches for their big sisters.

AFTER THEIR LUNCH the picnickers participated in softball, volleyball and tennis games.

SENIORS CELEBRATED at the picnic scheduled immediately after their final examination.

Elections

During the last month of the school year students hold elections of officers for the coming year. These elections are usually the climax of brief but intensive campaigns complete with posters, stickers, speeches and campaign managers.

NOMINEES for Student Council presidency are introduced by retiring president Diane Knobloch (right). They are Susan Cazedessus, Alice Svendson, and Dianne Taylor.

CAMPAIGN MANAGER Susie Johnson here speaks on behalf of Lynn Nesbit at a C.S.M.C. rally.

JUDGING THE CANDIDATES proves interesting as they address an informal gathering under the carport at the end of the school building.

"VOTE FOR LYNN!" Carol Gibbens and Diane Dozier hand stickers to Pat Jacob, Pauline Curtis and others.

STUDENTS ASSEMBLE in the gym to hear Student Council nominees campaign for the presidency.

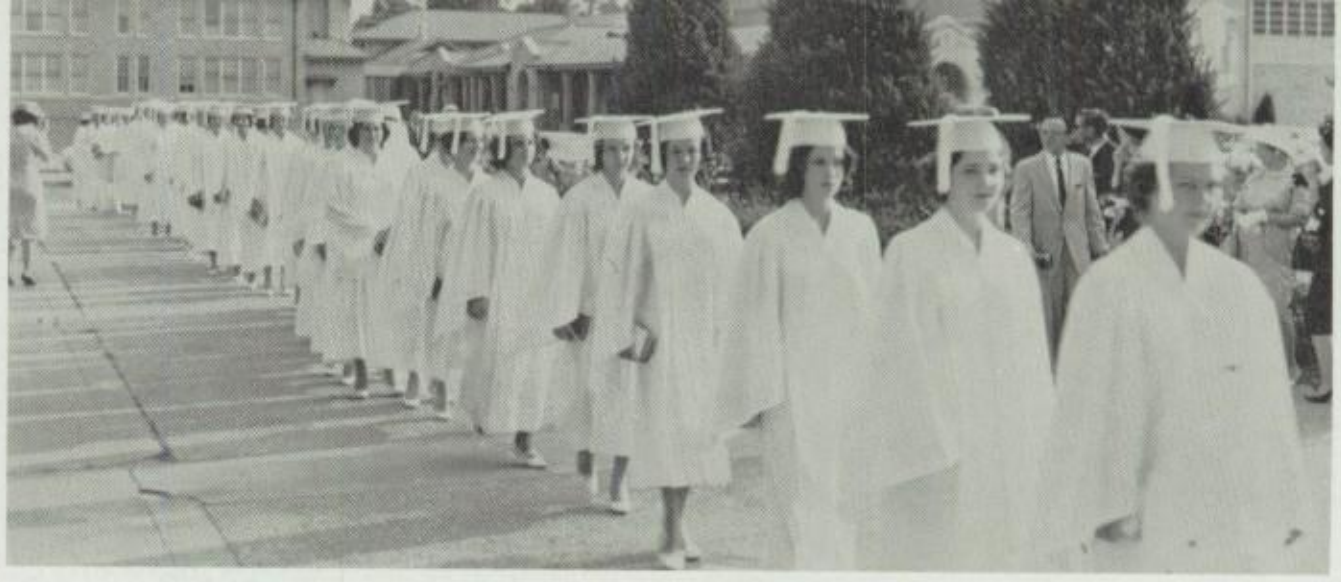
Graduation

Tuesday, May 29, 1962

All too quickly the end of the year has come. The 66 graduates assemble with the student body for the 7:30 A.M. High Mass celebrated at Sacred Heart Church by Monsignor Paul J. Gauci. Members of the Glee Club sing for the occasion.



ENTERING SACRED HEART CHURCH for the graduation Mass.

SISTER ALICE MARIE, senior home room teacher, watches thoughtfully as another class departs.

THE IMPRESSIVE PROCESSION into Church.

AFTER THE MASS, classmates greet the seniors.
THE COMMUNION of the Mass (at left).

"THERE YOU ARE!" Graduates arrive at school immediately after Mass to see for the first time their class picture now hanging in the main hall.

THE SENIOR BREAKFAST is traditionally given by the Alumnae Association and is held in the school cafeteria.

READING THE GRADUATION ISSUE of Student Prints absorbs the interest of seniors as they assemble for the commencement exercises.

TEASING EACH OTHER over sentimental tears (for which they became famous) are Jackie Hood and Judy Prejean with class salutatorian Betty Innes.

SOLEMN GRADUATION CEREMONIES take place in Medaille Hall at 8 P.M. Barbara Gogreve here gives the valedictory address. On stage with the graduates are Monsignor Gauci, his excellency Bishop Tracy and Father William Greene.

SENIOR SINGERS make their final appearance with the Glee Club on graduation night.

JEAN POLLARD receives a scholarship from Bishop Tracy for finishing with the highest average.

DIANE KNOBLOCH is awarded the Knights of Columbus trophy as outstanding Catholic girl in the class. Mr. Ed Melancon makes the presentation.

KATHY BARRETT accepts the American Legion award from Mr. George May.

HIS EXCELLENCY Bishop Robert E. Tracy gives the commencement address, the ceremony closes with the class singing the Alma Mater, and the graduates file from the stage to receive the congratulations of parents and friends and to bid their teachers farewell.

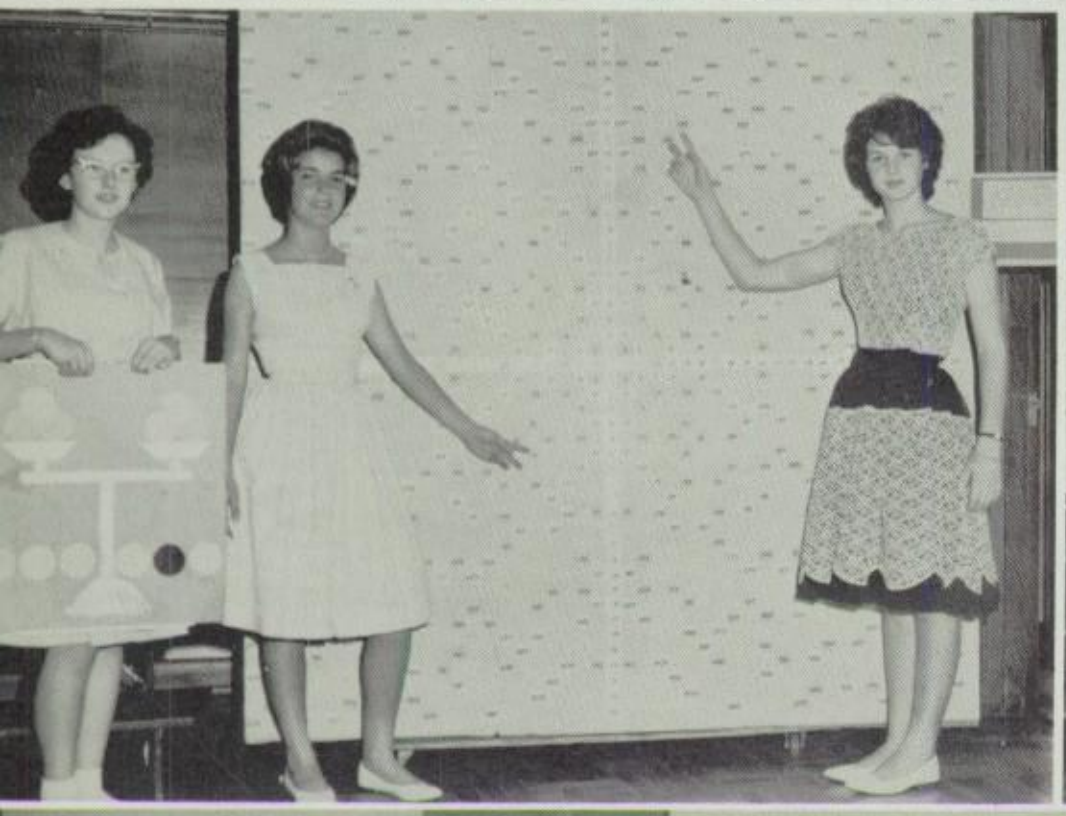
Graduates to High Schoo

Eighth graders assemble for a class picture at left.

Shortly before their graduation at Sacred Heart Church, the class held a special tea in honor of their parents. At this time math clubbers Barbara McManus, Louise Kyle and Larrye Heyl explained one of their projects (lower left).



A CHORAL GROUP entertained the parents. Several members of the class are missing from this group picture.

SUSAN CROSBY, Gail Gaiennie serve refreshments to Mrs. Charles Gaiennie and Mr. Gaiennie.

PATROL GIRLS assist with unloading cars as students arrive at school. Eighth graders form the patrol squads.
